

The Court finding that it is improper for any person or persons to divulge or make known in any manner any information directly or indirectly derived from these records,

ORDERED,

1. That information regarding the medical examination, condition, treatment and/or history of the alleged victim(s) in this case shall be reviewed and shared only by the parties and their Attorneys for necessary trial preparation;
2. That information regarding the medical examination of the alleged victim(s) in this case is released only for use in this litigation. Accordingly, parties and their agents may use information released only for purposes absolutely essential to the resolution of the litigation;
3. That disclosure of information shall be limited to information contained in records deemed by the Court to be relevant to this case;
4. That any person who discloses any information contained in these reports in violation of this Order shall be subject to the penalties of law and shall be subject to sanctions, including contempt;

5. That the Custodian of Records and/or any other representative is ordered to appear and testify and/or produce all records, if called by the State or Defense, such record and/or testimony produced is limited to that which is disclosed under the Protective Order, unless a Motion is filed and granted by the Court allowing disclosure of additional information.
